Mission

Photography can help with youth with self-expression, connecting to their communities, and advocating for change, so we hoped to:

- Show Black kiddos they can be artists
- Build an artistic community/network
- Teach photography and storytelling skills
- Unpack intersections of different art mediums

The Clubhouse Network

Provides creative and safe out-of-school learning environment

Youth work with adult mentors to explore own ideas, develop skills, and build confidence through use of technology

Roots Through Photos

Rose Ajegwu and Leila Habib

Method

Implement eight-week modular photo workshops with interactive exercises at the Clubhouse Network, culminating with showcase of student work

- Share names, pronouns, food, and fun icebreakers
- Collect feedback from students

Workshop Topics

- Using a Camera
- Elements of Photography
- Street & Documentary Photography
- Portrait Photography
- Narrative Photography
- Valuing Your Work
- Combining Art Mediums
- Phoneography

Acknowledgements

Special thanks to The Clubhouse Network, Dr. Jennifer Lieb, Mika Morikawa, Andrey Markin, and the Northeastern Office of Undergraduate Research & Fellowships for partnership, support, and documentation of the project.

Next Steps

Publish workshop slides so general public can access them

Due to scheduling and a graduating member, workshops will not continue next school year
