Progress Towards Honors Course Distinction

The Alden/Peabody Scholarships require that the Honors student demonstrate satisfactory progress towards achieving University Honors Program Distinction.

Active participation in Honors is defined minimally as your progress towards meeting Honors requirements.

First and second year students who applied and were internally admitted to the Honors Program after matriculation to Northeastern will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis to determine whether they are making sufficient progress.

Please list all Honors courses completed and/or registered for. This information can be found using your Degree Audit on myNortheastern. *
